A Series Of Grading Standards

Points of first wear on Indian cents

One of the most controversial subjects in numismatics is the grading of coins. In this article we will consider a few points of interest in grading and evaluating the popular series, Indian cents.

The picture above shows the Indian cent where the first wear is likely to appear. Some beginning collectors have been fooled because they have not used a magnifying glass to detect wear at these points when purchasing a so-called uncirculated coin. All collectors need to know what to look for in condition if they plan to acquire coins for both pleasure and possible future profit.

For even the beginning collector, the safest investment is the best quality of Indian cent the collector can afford. If, however, the collector cannot afford a very fine to uncirculated specimen, then he should try to acquire a fine condition coin.

A fine Indian cent is one that shows wear but all the letters in LIBERTY on the head band are plainly visible. In addition, the cent should have no corrosion, nicks, scratches, or edge bruises. Minor but visible defects such as these lower the grade of the coin from fine to very good. Heavy corrosion or a plainly visible but not very serious defect lowers the grade to good — "Liberty" or no "Liberty!"

A very good Indian cent with minor defects is one with a portion of Liberty showing.

Readers are cautioned that fair or about good Indians, except in the rarest dates, are difficult to resell. The value of obtaining uncirculated Indian cents, if possible, for investment may be illustrated by considering the rise in value of certain key Indian cents during the past forty-six years as shown by the following chart:

Uncirc.	Indian	1912	1941	1948	1954	Today (est.)
1861	$.75	4.50	8.50	10.00	18.00
1872	.50	10.00	14.00	30.00	50.00
1877	1.50	15.50	45.00	65.00	135.00

She Is Not A Real Indian

Contrary to the belief of many collectors, the portrait of the Indian girl on the U.S. Indian cent is not an Indian, it is Sarah Longacre, thirteen year old daughter of the engraver of the mint Mr. Longacre. Reports are that when Longacre was working on a design he had a visit from an Indian chief friend. Jokingly they let her try the chiefs feather head dress on. This gave the engraver the idea of his design which he produced and submitted to congress who accepted it.

The first coins struck were the (Copper Nickel) cents also known as (White Cents) because of the light color in the year 1859 thru 1864. In 1864 the metal was changed to our present day bronze with the change the engravers initial "L" was inserted at the base of the last feather on the ribbon, this was later removed, a small number of these contain this initial and are very scarce, there after all Indian cents contain the initial "L" a proof 1864 L is very scarce one auction sale sold one for $1500.

ADOLPHE MENJOU

One of our prominent and well known readers is Mr. Menjou one of Hollywoods top rate actors, in fact top rate in every field he chooses. They include Movies', Radio, Television, Arts', Numismatics' and was chosen as the best dressed man in America. Adolphe first started collecting when he was 12 years of age, a cigar box full of stamps and coins were given to him by his father, since then his collections have been world known. Part of his rare collection was sold for some $200,000. Adolphe says he finds the "Numismatic Hobby" very interesting and gets great satisfaction and pleasure in the hunt for rare coins. He advises collectors to be always on the alert for new finds and be careful of condition when buying, in his own words "Caveat Emptor" (let the buyer beware).

Adolphe also mentioned he found the "Flying Eaglet" issues very interesting. We hope we may again hear from Mr. Menjou, possibly relating some of the experiences of acquiring his rare coins.

Canadian Silver Dollar Commemorates British Columbia's Centennial 1958

The fourth Canadian commemorative silver dollar to be minted has appeared in 1958 to mark the 100th anniversary of the creation of British Columbia as a crown colony in 1858 as well as the famous gold rush of the same year. British Columbia became a province of Canada on July 20, 1871 (four years after Canadian confederation in 1867).

From Your Editor's Desk —

I hope you have noticed our January issue with the photos of Lincoln Cent and grading points. It is very difficult to obtain sharp pictures for grading purposes, but we will continue to do our best. Earl Mc Brayer, our writer, will continue to write up this series on grading and welcomes all comments and suggestions to help our readers along these lines. Persons interested should write to Earl Mc Brayer, 6702 Jersey Ave., Cincinnati 33, Ohio.

Reference to Joseph Weintraub's suggestion of inserting the letter "P" for future proof coins. We have received letters listing (2) clubs with the signatures of their members who would like to see this suggestion approved. This seems to be a good idea and should be discussed with the members of all coin clubs, for their comments and suggestions. Please write this magazine with a list of names who approve. The purpose of this is to help protect the collector from buying fake proof coins. The letter "P" would identify it to be genuine.

A discouraging note is to see advertisers offering coins and rolls at ridiculous prices. For example, 1943-S Steel cents at some $40.00 per roll (191,550,000) struck. There has been a tendency to follow the leader, which hurts the hobby. Note the price fall of (Proof sets). This practice only causes false prices. Advertisers are privileged to buy or sell as they please, but if the interest of the coin hobby is at heart, they should refrain from spiralling up items that are plentiful. Like everything else the average person makes a market, price adjustments are needed! But, put them out of the collectors reach and you have an unhealthy situation.

Of interest has been the (Gold Note) currency series. Many collectors of this series are wondering about the recent protests to have these notes collectable. They truly are of numismatic value! They should have the same status as the gold coins.

Yours truly had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Orisan Jones, the President of "The Delaware Valley Coin Club" of New Jersey. Present at the time was Mr. Nick Salimbene of Newark, a member of the "Newark Coin Club." Nick was displaying some 60 pieces of "Korean and Japanese coins.

Mr. Nick Salimbene had with him a beautiful hand made "Picture Coin Display Case" with foreign coin impressions on a copper metal sheet background. Nick is considering to produce them if they prove popular.

With him, he brought his bag of "Korean" coins in hopes someone could identify and price them. These odd shaped coins were given to Nick by a sergeant friend who bartered for them from some "Monks" living in the monastery in Korea. Most of these coins are "temple" pieces. If any of our readers have knowledge of these ancient coins, please contact Nick Salimbene, 67 Congress Street, Newark, New Jersey.

At present "The Newark Coin Club" is starting a Federation, a league whereas the coin clubs of New Jersey can get together and have a "State Convention" each year, which would promote a get-together of club members and good fellowship. Mr. Jones considered this to be worthy and will bring this up at the next meeting of the "Delaware Valley Coin Club."

Coin clubs and collectors of New Jersey, if you would like to help and be a part of this "State Coin Club League" write in your approval and comments to the President of the Newark Coin Club, Mr. James Brown, 227 Waverly Avenue, Newark, N. J.

$25,000 IN RARE COINS STOLEN

MIAMI, FLORIDA — Jan 12, at the recent convention held at Miami a clever robbery took place which was saddening. William Donner was the victim, while he sipped tea in the Biscayne Terrace Hotel with friends, a gray-suited man handed bell hop Gene Perry a room key and said "check me out of 608". Perry checked with the hotel desk and brought down Donner's luggage and placed it in a waiting cab. The gray suit man tipped the bell hop and rode off. Donner's grips contained many rare coins, mostly ancient Rome and old rare gold pieces.

GRADING STANDARD

PROOF—Coin, a mirror-like finish, especially struck for collectors on polished metal blanks and struck by slower hydraulic press to obtain best feature lines.

UNCIRCULATED made for general circulation has lustre but never reaches circulation. A Gem Unc. is unusually well struck has lustre no scratches, rubbings or mars.

EXTRA FINE & A. U.—about same. Coin is about uncirculated, slightly worn on high points and may have some mint lustre.

V. FINE—Has been circulated but all features and lettering are sharp.

FINE—Has all features and lettering but not sharp. Liberty is readable.

V. G.—Has border rims most features and lines visible. Part of Liberty visible.

GOOD—All features and lines worn but visible.

FAIR—Considerably worn.

POOR—Considerably worn smooth, or corroded, good only as space filler.

This grading is used only as a guide to help you and is a general medium used by all dealers and collectors in the Numismatic field.

POINTS TO LOOK FOR ON SOME POPULAR COINS.

1 CENT LINCOLN: The lines on wheat stalk and Lincoln's ear are a good spot to look for wear. On a coin classed as very good most lines should be showing, on a coin graded fine they should be sharp.

5 CENT LIBERTY: E Pluribus Unum is legible on coins graded good, clear on coins graded very good. One graded fine should have full liberty.

5 CENT BUFFALO: On a good coin edge of word Liberty may be slightly worn, but on one graded very good the word Liberty is clear and one-half of horn shows, a fine coin should have nearly a full horn, a coin classed as very fine has full horn and tail shows on hip.

10 CENT MERCURY: Watch lines on fasces, on coins classed very good some fasces lines show, a fine coin should have most all lines.

FOR BEGINNERS who are just starting to collect, here are a few suggestions and some advice. First, a coin guide book is a must. They can be purchased for $1.00 or more for helpful information: on care, condition, value, amount minted, types, how coins are made, and other news of help and interest. Most coins can be found in circulation. As you are making your set always try to improve the worn coins. Value of coins depends greatly on the condition. Never clean or polish coins unless you are experienced. If you must try, use a common date coin. There are handy cleaning kits available for this purpose. Coin insert folders and other supplies can be obtained at your dealer. You may also notice that the age of old coins do not make them rare. There are some late date coins minted that are worth more than some hundreds of years old. What makes one coin worth more than another are by these factors: Amount of coins minted, availability, collectors demand and any unusual die strikes. Coins can be obtained through purchases, by auctions or trading with collectors. Mint sets can be bought by writing the Treasury Dept., U. S. Office of Treasury, Washington 25, D. C., at face value, plus postage and handling. To obtain Proof Sets of current year send $2.10 money order to Supt. Phila. Mint 16th and Spring Garden Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. You may order as many sets as you wish. Commemorative half dollars are authorized periodically by Congress. These halves when issued are not sold by the mints, they are turned over to a Commission authorized by Congress at face value. The Commission then sells the halves at a premium.

Scarce Mint Varieties

These (3) varieties are always sought. The 1918/17-S standing Liberty 25¢ is difficult to find in any condition. It presently brings about $325. in Unc. condition.

The 1942/41 10¢ is fast becoming popular with the dime collector. It first was discovered in the Boston and New York area. Three years ago they sold for $18. each Unc., today it brings $90. in Unc. condition

The third photo shows the more recent discovery the "Double Shift Date" 1955 cent which was reported first found in the Mass. area, then other New England states. There are but a few around compared with the 1942/41, they were sold for as little as $2. each in 1956. They now bring up to $30. in Unc. condition. They are being found daily from collectors who are constantly searching for scarce dates in the general circulation.

Jack Marshall of Belmont, Mass. informs us that this variety should be listed along with the (spike chin) half cent, (Libekty) dime and other varieties of this type. His theory is the matrix die, double struck the working die causing all the cents from this die to have a double inscription. Some of these cents if inspected more closely will reveal a slight double profile. This new variety should find a listing space in a future (Guide) book.

These varieties and others, plus new ones are constantly being found daily. They are every where waiting for the interested collector to discover them.

NOTICE

When writing Servicemen overseas take advantage of the free service granted to them. Use airmail stamps as this is quicker, a 6c airmail letter could be sent all over the world. This also would eliminate long delays, by regular mail.

MINT ERROR?

Dealer: I don't see anything wrong with this Franklin Half. Collector: Look Closer. The Liberty Bell is CRACKED on the reverse side.

E. R. Kirk

Lawyer: You say you were about 35 feet away from the scene. Just how far can you see clearly? Old Farmer: Wal, when I wake up I see the sun and they tell me that's about ninety-three million miles away.

Magistrate (to police officer who has arrested two Scotsmen for being intoxicated): How did you know they were under the influence of drink? Officer: Well, McTavish was offering money to McPherson, who was refusing it.

First Clerk: Poor Watkins has completely lost his hearing. I'm afraid he'll lose his job. Second Clerk: Nonsense. He's to be transferred to the Complaint Department.

"And then my wife hit me over the head with an oak leaf."
 "An oak leaf! That couldn't have hurt much."
 "Yeah! It was the oak leaf from the dining room table."

1926-S WITH EXTRA FOLD

This photo shows two standing Liberty quarters. On the left is a regular issue, the other a new variety. Note the circle mark near hip. This piece grades just good.

Check your 1926-S with the extra fold, the coin is worth considerably more.

LETTERS

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is a money order for a subscription for myself and a friend. You have a wonderful magazine it really covers the subject of coin collecting.

—Norman Miderski
Chicago, Ill.

—O—

Dear Frank:

I have learned a lot from your articles mainly the one on the (small motto) two cent piece (Dec. issue). Many collectors will be sorting through these 1864 pieces in a matter of a few minutes.

I purchased some 1864 Indian cents, the (L) on some were questionable, I soaked them in penetrating oil and now I can see some L's on half of them.

Canadian coins look good today. I honestly believe the 1925 five cent piece is the 1916 D of tomorrow.

I recently purchased a $10. bill with a full offset of the obverse on the reverse. Having more time on my hands now so don't be surprised if you get an ad from me soon.

—Albert Kramer
New York City, N.Y.

—O—

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is check for a subscription for myself and friend. Your magazine is fast coming to the front, keep up the good work. By the way, can we have a short article on the Indian Cent, I am told the Indian is a (white girl!)

—E. Whitten
Princeton, Ill.

P.S. I get my best results from ads in the Flying Eaglet. Keep her flying!

—Robert D. Parkinson
Salley, S. C.

—O—

Dear Sir:

I thought I would write and let you know how lucky I was. Two weeks ago I went to the bank and got 37 rolls of pennys. I found a 1909 S VDB with about 90% of the lines on the wheat straws. I enjoy your magazine very much.

—Raymond A. Bennett
Winamac, Ind.

—O—

Dear Sir:

I am very pleased with the 'Flying Eaglet' magazine, enclosed is my renewal for (3) more years. This should prove it.

I have a 1944 nickel with out the letter "P" have any been found like this? also have a cent with R & W Jenkinson Alleghany, Pa. Tobacco dealers and a brass like cents "two Scruples" Philadelphia & New York.

—Steve Balcerak
Carnegie, Pa.

Editor's Note: There have been a number of these 1944 nickels struck by counterfeiters who unwittingly left the "P" out which was their down fall. Also a die filling of the letter would cause it to appear blank. The latter two coins mentioned above seem to be on the order of being store cards.

—O—

1943 BRONZE CENTS FOUND

Reports received list, Marvin Beyers, of Rivera, Calif. having a 1943 Bronze cent. Marvin states it will be listed in the "American Coin Book". Mrs. Biester Supt. of the Phila. Mint, says this coin should be removed from circulation. When it comes into the hands of the treasury it can not be returned.

Wendell Bench, of Salt Lake City, has also found a 1943 D bronze cent, he states he had it checked and was found to be a bronze not steel as in the regular issue.

—O—

Harold Don Allen, Our "Eaglet" writer from (Canada) informs us of a new collector in his family. They were blessed with new born (9) pound baby. Harold has been giving the New 1958 "British Columbia" silver Dollar out instead of "cigars".

—O—

Dear Sir:

As a new Subscriber to your magazine I am happy to say I enjoy its contents very much. I noted your "Editor's Desk" column requesting news of (Canadian series). I have (20) 1956 Canadian dimes with a dot beneath date (1956) I would like to hear from our readers if it is a common or scarce variety. I have never seen it advertised.

—Joe Kuehnent

61 Claude Dr., Cheektowaga, N.Y.

—O—

Dear Frank:

I thought the readers of the "Flying Eaglet" would like to know that the "Money Museum" at the Ave. of America's & 49th St. have added to their large collections the $11 bill, one side a $10.00 the other $1.00, also a bill with one side a $2.00 the other side a $1.00 and the famous (1804) silver dollar.

—Anthony Mazzella
N.Y.C., N.Y.

—O—

Mr. Edmund Narusiewics of 141 Central Ave. Norwich, Conn., writes: "I have been collecting for a year now, I recently found a 1864 (L) cent with a double struck obverse and date. Also a 1956 D cent with a double struck 'D'". Edmund would like to hear from our readers if this is a find, or are there others.

Editor's Note: Looks like Edmund is alert as a beginner, I would say these pieces are scare. Possibly Edmund would send some photos, showing these coins in our next issue.

NEWARK COIN CLUB

The 16th meeting of the Newark Coin Club was held Tuesday evening Jan. 14th, at the Newark downtown branch of the Y.M.-Y.W.C.A., with 13 present despite a midget size hurricane.

The door prize of a beautiful display case and a 1923 Silver Dollar was won by Charles Lehrer. Discussion was held on the proposal by the Liberty Bell Coin Club of Philadelphia, to change the proof coins to wit: that a letter "P" be placed on all future proof coins. Motion was made that we write to the Director of the Mint and back this proposal. Among the guests present were Frank Spadone, Publisher of "The Flying Eagle" and Henry Wolter, who braved the storm to come over from Brooklyn. A proposal was made to invite three or four clubs from the New Jersey area to our regular monthly meeting in May. Refreshments were served while we took time to look over the various exhibits. This was followed by a small but lively auction. New members and visitors are always welcome.

Suggestions were made to donate to the "People To People Program" for visiting recognized Foreign numismatists who are invited here. Plans were formulated and a committee set up for the 25th anniversary of the club, to be a supper celebration on April 10, 1958 at the Robert Treat Hotel on Park Pl. Herbert Oschsner and Williard Blaisdell to be co-Chairmen.

CANADA'S DOLLARS: INTERESTING, INEXPENSIVE

Story and Chart by H. Don Allen

Canada, which started striking silver dollars when the United States left off, in 1935, will have a record boom in the big silver "presentation" coin in 1958. Further, if you expect to be looking for a scarce date to salt away, you can bet your bottom silver dollar that a low mintage is in the offing for 1959.

For Canada's silver dollar is a remarkably predictable coin.

When it appears in fancy dress for a commemorative issue the public makes a run on the banks and silver dollars turn up as birthday gifts or (in massive bulk!) as remembrances on silver anniversaries.

And the Bank of Canada, which releases Canada's coinage, visibly shudders. For, sure as fate, when the big year is over the silver cartwheels, by the thousands, come rolling back to the banks.

A lean year follows, and few further coins are struck. The bank is glutted with circulated dollars. And little old ladies start ordering shiny new ones for nephews and nieces, and the cycle goes on.

Indeed, following the record 1939 Royal Visit striking of one and a third million of the big pieces, the banks were so glutted that no more were needed until 1945, and none were struck.

But, for every other year between 1935 and now, a large or small number of the heavy coins has reached circulation, in direct proportion to public demand. Surprisingly, while some years are remarkably scarce (for example, only 18,780 of the coins were struck bearing the date 1948), a type set, including commemoratives, is surprisingly easy to acquire. Commemorative dollars (beautiful coins) are released at face value, and the only ceiling on the number struck is the length of the line-ups at the banks.

CANADA'S SILVER DOLLARS, big attractive coins, have been struck for two decades to a grand total considerably less than 7,000,000 — most of which were issued in four peak years. Each of these four years produced a commemorative coin, and a further commemorative release in the series is planned for 1958. The "between years" have been characterized by remarkably low mintings, down to 38,000 in 1945 and 40,000 in 1948. Further rarity is instilled in the 1948 strikings by the fact that the coins were of two types, the 1947 - Maple Leaf (21,000) and the standard 1948 (under 19,000 and priced over $20 today). This chart, exclusive with The Flying Eaglet, provides the circulation figures at a glance.

Hence, the 1935 dollar, marking the silver anniversary of the reign of King George V, still can be found in any handful of circulated dollars at a bank. So can the 1939, depicting the Parliament Buildings. About equally common is the 1953, first dollar to depict Queen Elizabeth II, and in incredible demand in the Coronation year. Today, over a million of the coins rest stockpiled in banks, and the collector can pick and choose. Also, the beautiful Newfoundland commemorative, struck in 1949 to mark the entry of the colony into Canada as a province, is readily obtained. For these, the most interesting of Canada's silver dollars, also were the most mass-produced.

This year, 1958, is to see another commemorative, honouring British Columbia, Canada's Pacific province. With totem post outlined against the Rockies, it seems an attractive coin. Demand should be great.
